

Country Group Securities Pcl is a pre-eminent player in the Thai financial services industry. With over forty years of history, we strive to innovate our services to suit our customers' unique needs. Country Group Securities provide a full range of equity products for the retail and institutional clientele, supported by our highly regarded research and investments department. Our services are aimed to make investing easy, affordable, and accessible, conducted in a competitive and ethical approach.

We are looking for individuals with these essential qualifications

Associate, Derivatives

To help supporting derivatives function by increasing profit, innovate products, increase market share and also manage cost efficiency.

Responsibilities :

- Research, identify and capture trading/hedging opportunities for the desk's proprietary account within the approved strategies and guidelines
- Perform trading /hedging /risk management strategies for products
- Maintain contact with sales to understand flows and their implications for markets

Qualifications :

- Master Degree in Engineering, Financial Engineer, Economics or other Quantitative discipline
- Bachelor's Degree with excellent educational background is also welcomed
- Non-experienced is welcomed
- Strong knowledge of derivatives asset pricing methodologies and hedging techniques
- Excellent analytically and problem solving skills
- Skills in Microsoft Excel, VBA or other programming language
- Independent and able to work hard under pressure
- Good communication skills

Interested candidate please send all document to : chaiyong.de@countrygroup.co.th

For more information please contact : Tel. 02-205 7000 ext 2505